SENIOR LEAGUE.

IMPERIALS 4—SHAMROCKS 6.

May 4.—The Shamrocks took a fast and rather close game from the Imperials last Thursday owing to the timely hits of Grathwohl Whitcomb and Malay. Up to the eight inning it looked like a sure victory for the Imperials but the Shamrocks netted four runs and walked off with a victory.

LAURELS 0—ROYALS 3

May 6.—The Laurels dropped another Game last Saturday to the Royals. Westhoven did not show anything like his old time form while Fiely was at his best, allowing the Laurals only two hits and striking out fifteen men.

Innings	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	R.	H.	E.
Laurels	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	2	5
Royals	2	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	3	9	3

CARDINALS 7—SHAMROCKS 1

May 7.—The game between the Cardinals and the Shamrocks last Sunday was a rather one-sided affair. It was featured by the heavy batting of the Cardinals and the loose fielding of the Shamrocks. Harrison was wild and his frequent passes contributed not a little to the success of the Cardinals. Lill was steady throughout the entire game and allowed but three scattered hits.

Innings	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	R.	H.	E.
Cardinals	0	2	3	1	0	0	0	0	1	7	8	3
Shamrocks	0	0	0	1	0	0	0	0	0	1	3	7

LAURELS 4—SHAMROCKS 5.

April 30.—A hotly contested game between the Laurels and Shamrocks was played last Sunday, the latter winning by the close score of 5 to 4. Harrison was batted freely, but the Laurels were unable to score on him owing to poor base running. Westhoven and M.Kennedy were the stars of the game, the former allowing his opponents only two hits, while M. Kennedy gathered four hits in as many times at bat.

Innings	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	R	H	E
Shamrocks	1	0	1	0	0	1	1	1	0	5	2	6
Laurels	0	0	1	0	3	0	0	0	0	4	8	7

CARDINALS 0—vs—ROYALS 1.

May 2.—The Cardinal-Royal game on last Tuesday was a pitchers' battle between Lill and Fiely, the latter having a shade the better of it. Lill allowed but four hits, Fiely let his opponents down with only two.

Innings	1	2	3	4	5	R	H	E
Cardinals	0	0	0	0	0	0	2	5
Royals	1	0	0	0	0	1	4	1

LAURELS 5—IMPERIAL 4.

May 1.—Monday's game between the Laurels and Imperials was a battle royal for the cellar position. The Imperials succeeded in carrying off the honors.

“AMONG THE JUNIORS.”

CUBS—vs—GIANTS.

May 2.—In a pitchers' battle to-day between Lambert and Kozazick the latter pitched a hitless game and won by a score of 3 to 1. Lambert allowed only one hit, but it came at the critical moment and helped to bring in the score.

Innings	1	2	3	4	5	R.	H.	E.
Cubs	1	1	0	1	0	3	1	3
Giants	0	0	1	0	0	1	0	4

Batteries: Cubs, Kozazick and LaMair, Giants, Lambert and Allen.

REDS—vs—DOVES.

May 3.—The Reds lost their perfect percent to-day when the Doves beat them unmercifully by the score of 10 to 3. Muller was hit at will, and numerous errors on the part of the Reds helped to swell the number of runs. The three-base-hit of Ittenbach was the feature of the game.

Innings	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	R.	H.	E.
Reds	1	0	0	0	1	0	1	3	7	6
Doves	2	0	1	5	1	1	*	10	6	6

Batteries: Reds, Muller and Roberts; Doves, Tokarz and Nix.

PIRATES—vs—CUBS.

May 4.—One of the most interesting games of the season in this league was won to-day by the Cubs by the score of 5 to 4.

Both pitchers were in rare form and received good support, but the opportune hitting of the Cubs won their game.

Innings.	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	R.	H.	E.
Pirates	0	1	0	1	0	0	0	2	0	4	7	5
Cubs	0	1	1	0	0	1	1	1	*	5	6	6

Batteries: Kihm and Debrecht; Kozazick and LaMair.

DOVES—vs—REDS.

May 5.—The Doves took a second victory from the Reds to-day by the score of 9 to 6. Good base running of the Doves assisted by the steady pitching of Tokarz won the contest for them.

Innings	1	2	3	4	5	R.	H.	E.
Doves	2	1	0	6	0	9	4	4
Reds	1	4	0	1	0	6	6	7

Batteries: Doves, Tokarz and Nix; Reds, Muller and Roberts.

GIANTS—vs—PIRATES.

May 6.—The Pirates through their timely hitting won the game by the score of 9 to 7. Errors on both sides took interest out of the game, nevertheless it was a strongly contested game and the Pirates were at no time sure of victory.

Innings	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	R.	H.	E.
Giants	0	0	0	1	1	0	0	5	0	7	5	11
Pirates	0	0	4	0	1	1	1	2	*	9	6	10

Batteries: Giants, Schmits, Lambert and Allen; Pirates, Kihm and Debrech.

✧ COLLEGEVILLE SPORTING NEWS ✧

Entered as first class matter at Collegeville P. O., Ind.

EDITORIAL

On Sunday May the 14th the R.J.S Club will give a Minstrel. Many comedians and singers of rare talent will be there with their latest pranks and jokes. Carmody the old time mick will appear with the brogue and his laugh producing machine. Bradley "Old King Brady," is prepared to sway the audience from tear to sympathy for his "lost doggie" to shouts of joy. The Temple of Janus will be opened and the Jasper County Herold, better kown as Clothes Press—will be read for the nineteenth time since 1892. Come one and all and all bring one—ticket—and a sheet to wipe away the copious tears that are bound to flow.

WHAT'S WHAT.

The first round of the Senior League ended with Mondays game, and left the chances for first place about even for three teams. The Royals still hold that honor, with the Cardinals in close second; while the Shamrocks have only two games chalked against them. Of course we are hearing the usual "if s" and "and s," and if these are taken into account, the next week will bring some very interesting contests. The number of rounds that are to be played has not yet been decided upon, but from present indications there will be only two. The second round starts Wednesday the 10th, and can not possibly end before the last of the month. To get in the third round would necessitate double headers or else games up to the very last day. We hear many objections to this policy. Many of the players object to playing through the final examinations, which they would have to do if the third round were scheduled.

LOCALS.

For stamps go to Hemmelgarn, just received a large supply from Sears & Roebuck.

Hartz—Do you know, Westy, that people are dying this year that never died before.

Westhoven—Why no—I don't believe it.

Red Gantner—I wonder why the fellows call me Handsome.

Albert—I don't see why they should, I'm handsomer than you.

The R. J. S. Minstrel will be given next Sunday, May 14.

DON'T MISS IT.

POET—VS—OFFICE BOY.

Carmody—I have a little poem entitled: "Is Life Worth Living."

G. Kussmaul—Well, if you want to find out, is death worth dying walk right in.

Prof.—What state bounds Arkansas on the north.

Blottman—Newbraska.

Shorty Horan—If I had another shovel I'd help.

G. Riechort—If I had feet like yours I'd use them for shovels and beat it.

"Cavy"—Say, Becker, what do you intend to work at when you are through school?

Becker—Oh! I don't know, that all depends on what my Papa says.

Bombach—Why for you make all this unnecessariness?

Connors—Sulsi spilt some water on me face, and I know it will spoil me looks.
